

The 15th IACIP Annual Workshop
INVITATION FOR PARTICIPATION & CALL FOR PRESENTATION
Sustainable and Smart Infrastructure Materials and Technologies

Dear Members and Friends of IACIP:

On behalf of the International Association of Chinese Infrastructure Professionals (IACIP), we are pleased to announce that we will be organizing the 15th IACIP Annual Workshop in conjunction with the 104th TRB annual conference with the theme of "Sustainable and Smart Infrastructure Materials and Technologies". The organizing committee cordially invites you to attend the workshop and encourages you to make your travel arrangements accordingly in advance. The tentative workshop schedule is as follows:

Date/Time: 8:30 am to 5:00 pm on Sunday, January 5, 2025

Location: Gallaudet University (M1) / Marriott Marquis

We are now accepting applications for presentations at the workshop on any topics related to sustainable and smart infrastructure materials and technologies. The IACIP workshop intends to provide a hub for researchers and practitioners to share their opinions, develop connections, and discuss collaborations in response to challenging issues in various aspects of infrastructure materials and technologies.

If you are interested in making a presentation, please send your presentation title, abstract, and half-page bio to Dr. Jiwang Jiang, co-chair of the presentation planning subcommittee, at jjiang_jiwang@seu.edu.cn by Nov. 30, 2024. Please include your last name and "IACIP Presentation" in the email subject line (i.e., Smith_IACIP Presentation). The planning committee will evaluate all the presentation topics and make selections for the workshop based on relevance of topic, interest to audience, and presentation slots available. Final notice of selection will be sent out no later than Dec. 15, 2024. Thanks for your attention and look forward to meeting you at the workshop!
